

American Red Cross Emergency and Relief Fund

1913

Case number 13. (English). A boy, seventeen years of age, coming to join his father and work with him as a gardener, was lost. His mother, 46 years of age, and another son, 23, and a daughter 14, were in England. The mother was completely broken down by grief and shock, and her husband decided to return to England with the body of his son, which had been recovered. This Committee gave $200 for funeral expenses. ($200).
