

Beesley Claims War Compensation

The Times

Wednesday 22 January 1919

At the Defence of the Realm Losses Commission yesterday, Mr L. Beesley, described as a practitioner of Christian Science, claimed compensation in respect of the requisitioning by the War Office of rooms at Pembroke House, Oxford Street, in May 1917, in consequence of which he had to move to other rooms in Cavendish Street.

[page 5]

Courtesy of Senan Molony

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #2895)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/beesley-claims-war-compensation.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

