

Cabin Allocations

Sunday 18 July 2004

The allocation of cabins on the Titanic is a source of continuing interest and endless speculation. Apart from the recollections of survivors and a few tickets and boarding cards, the only authoritative source of cabin data is the incomplete first class passenger list recovered with the body of steward Herbert Cave. The list below includes this data and includes the likely occupants of some other cabins determined by other means.

The difficulty in determining, with any degree of accuracy, the occupancy of cabins on the Titanic indicates the need for further research in this area.

Important Note: Highlighted rows and cabin numbers with question marks beside them, represent deductions or speculations or allocations which, as yet, have no identified source. Under no circumstances should these be taken as fact.

First Class

Cabin No.	Name	Evidence	Comments
Boat Deck			6 cabins, accommodation for 7 people.
"T"	Blackwell, Mr Stephen Weart	Cave List	There is no evidence that anyone else occupied a Boat Deck cabin.
A Deck			36 cabins, accommodation for 48 people.
A-5	Goldschmidt, Mr George B.	Cave List
A-6 or A-8 (?)	Beattie, Mr Thomson McCaffry, Mr Thomas Francis	Peuchen's testimony at the Senate inquiry	When Peuchen is asked about where his friends were, he said A-12 for Ross and "A-8 and numbers to that affect" for Beattie and McCaffry. This suggests that Beattie and McCaffry may have moved from C deck to be near their sick friend, occupying cabins A-8 and perhaps A-6. If Beattie and McCaffry did move to A deck, it is possible that Mr Beattie was in A-8 and McCaffry in A-6.
A-7	Smith, Mr James Clinch	Cave List
A-9	Chevré, Mr Paul Romaine	Cave List
A-10	Ross, Mr John Hugo	Cave List	Peuchen testified that Ross was in A-12 (source: his Senate inquiry testimony) unless Ross was moved after the publication of the Cave List it is most likely that Peuchen was mistaken.
A-11 (?)	Rosenbaum (Russell), Miss Edith Louise	Personal account (? specific source)	Miss Rosenbaum booked late and does not appear on any cabin lists. She herself stated that she was in A-11.

A-12 (?)	Sloper, Mr William Thompson	Speculation		Sloper\'s cabin number is not known for certain. A-12: Given the port of embarkation and ticket office A-12 would have been permitted for the price Sloper paid. Sloper\'s account appears in the book "The life and times of Andrew Jackson Sloper" Which is a book he wrote about his father but seemed to consist mainly of his own memoirs. In it he claims he "...was going through the door when Ross called out..." This was most probably the door of his cabin. But even if Sloper was leaving A-12, he would have still heard Ross, since A-12 was next door to Ross\' cabin A-10. Sloper also confuses the reader in his account. In it he describes playing cards in the Lounge with Miss Gibson and others, when they leave and are "...standing at the top of the stairs..." Miss Gibson decided they should all go for a walk before retiring. Sloper then continues that he ran down one flight of stairs to his cabin. This gives an impression that he was on B deck. But there is more evidence that he was on A deck, he remembers meeting Mr Dulles (A-18).
A-16	Duff Gordon, Sir Cosmo Edmund	Cave List
A-18	Dulles, Mr William Crothers	Cave List
A-19	Smith, Mr Richard William	Cave List
A-20	Duff Gordon, Lady	Cave List
A-21	Brady, Mr John Bertram	Cave List	Berth 1
A-23	Barkworth, Mr Algernon H. Wilson	Cave List
A-24	Roebbling, Mr Washington Augustus II	Cave List
A-26	Simonius- Blumer, Colonel Alfons	Cave List
A-29	Evans, Miss Edith Corse	Cave List
A-31	Blank, Mr Henry	Cave List
A-32	Rood, Mr Hugh R.	Cave List
A-34	Dodge, Dr. Washington	Cave List

	Dodge, Mrs Washington (Ruth Vidaver) Dodge, Master Washington
A-36	Andrews, Mr Thomas, jr	Ethes\ testimony at Senate inquiry	Mr Andrews\ name does appear on the Cave List, but no cabin allocation is given. However, his bedroom steward Etches survived to confirm Andrews\ stateroom number.
A-37	Browne, Fr. Francis M., SJ - [Cross Channel Passenger]	Personal Account	A-36 and A-37 were late additions to the Titanic and did not appear on many cabin plans and were not numbered when they did. Mr Browne had some difficulty finding his cabin. He indicated it\ s position on his personal deck plan.
B Deck			101 numbered cabins, 2 of which are sitting rooms. Therefore it has 99 bedrooms with accomodation for 183 passengers.
B-3	Robert, Mrs Edward Scott	Cave List	The Cave list places Miss Kreuchen (maid to Mrs Robert ) in the same cabin but Miss Allen states that Kreuchen\ s cabin was forward on E-Deck (Gracie 1913) Colonel Archibald Gracie\ s book contains abstracts of many accounts and letters. Sent to him by passengers. One of them is by Mrs Candee. In it Mrs Candee also describes the events that Mrs Brown went through. It is from this account that we know that Mrs Brown occupied a forward B deck cabin, but precise whereabouts of which are much debated.
B-2, 4 or 6 [?]	Brown, Mrs James Joseph (Margaret Tobin)	Gracie
B-5	Allen, Miss Elisabeth Walton Madill, Miss Georgette Alexandra	Cave List
B-10	Brandeis, Mr Emil	Cave List	Although according to the Cave List Mr Brandeis was assigned B-10, Mr Silverthorne said that Brandeis held a party for a dozen buyers in his suite. Although a dozen might be an exaggeration but even 5 people would not fit into B-10 and it would hardly be considered a suite. Mr Brandeis could have afforded a larger cabin and it is possible that he changed from B-10 to a suite after boarding or that the party took place elsewhere.
B-11	Head, Mr Christopher	Cave List
B-18	Hippach, Mrs	Cave List

	Louis Albert Hippach, Miss Jean Gertrude
B-19	Van der hoef, Mr Wyckoff	Cave List
B-20	Dick, Mr Albert Adrian Dick, Mrs Albert Adrian	Cave List
B-22	Crosby, Captain Edward Gifford Crosby, Mrs Edward Gifford	Cave List
B-24	Payne, Mr Vivian Ponsonby [assistant to Mr Hays]	Deduced from Cave List	Payne is mentioned separately on the Cave List, by his own name, but there is no cabin next to his name. Next to Mr and Mrs Hays' name, cabins B-73 and B-24 are mentioned. Since we know that Mr Payne was travelling with them, we can deduce that the maid was in B-73 and Mr Payne was in B-24.
B-26	Crosby, Miss Harriet R.	Mrs Crosby's affidavit to the Senate inquiry	Miss Crosby is not mentioned on the Cave List. Mrs Crosby's affidavit includes the following: "she and her husband occupied stateroom No. 22 and her daughter occupied stateroom No. 26, they being first-class passengers on said steamer"
B-28	Stone, Mrs George Nelson Icard, Miss Amelie ("Amelia _") [maid to Mrs Stone]	Cave List
B-30	Østby, Mr Engelhart Cornelius	Cave List
B-31 or 33 (?)	Stewart, Mr Albert A.	Speculation	From the testimony of Mrs Bishop and bedroom steward Crawford we know that Mr Stewart was on the starboard side, in the forward section on B deck. Mrs Bishop said "he had a stateroom near us". She did not say next to or across the hall. This perhaps means he was not in either B-43 or B-47. Since he was not far from them, the nearest unoccupied cabins would be B-31 or B-33. Crawford, in his testimony, mentions taking lifebelts from the top of the wardrobe in Mr Stewart's cabin. There was only a walk-in wardrobe in B-43 where the lifebelts would have been kept on a rack on the floor. In cabins B-31 and B-33 the lifebelts would have been kept on top of the wardrobe.

B-35	Aubart, Mme. Leontine Pauline Sägesser, Mlle. Emma [maid to Mme. Aubert ]	Cave List
B-36	Østby, Miss Helene Ragnhild	Cave List
B-37	Kent, Mr Edward Austin	Cave List
B-38	Butt, Major Archibald Willingham	Cave List
B-39	Frölicher, Miss Hedwig Margaritha	Cave List
B-41	Frölicher-Stehli, Mr Maximilian Josef Frölicher-Stehli, Mrs Maximilian Josef	Cave List
B-45	Snyder, Mr John Pillsbury Snyder, Mrs John Pillsbury	Cave List
B-49	Bishop, Mr Dickinson H. Bishop, Mrs Dickinson H. (Helen Walton)	Cave List	Mrs Bishop said B-47 at Senate inquiry this is probably a mistake or a transcription error.
B-50	Stähelin, Dr Max Cardeza, Mrs James Warburton Martinez	Cave List
B-51-53-55	Ward, Miss Anna [maid to Mrs Cardeza ] Cardeza, Mr Thomas Drake Martinez	Cave List	See also B-101  Probably occupied B-55
B-52-54-56	Ismay, Mr Joseph Bruce	Ismay's testimony at the Senate inquiry.	"B-52 is the room I had." "You had the suite?" " I had the suite."
B-57-59-61-63 (?)	Ryerson, Mr Arthur Larned Ryerson, Mrs Arthur Larned	Tentatively deduced from Mrs Ryerson's affidavit to the	Possibly in B-57

	Ryerson, Miss Susan (Suzette) Parker Bowen, Miss Grace Scott [governess to Master Ryerson]		Possibly in B-59
	Chaudanson, Miss Victorine [maid to Mrs Ryerson]	Senate inquiry.	Possibly in B-61
	Ryerson, Master John Borie Ryerson, Miss Emily Borie		Possibly in B-63
B-58	Baxter, Mr Quigg Edmond	Cave List
B-60	Baxter, Mrs James Douglas, Mrs Frederick Charles	Cave List	Mrs Douglas\' cabin on the Cave List is identified as B-60, but it is possible that she and her mother were actually in B-58.
B-69	Hays, Mr Charles Melville	Cave List
	Hays, Mrs Charles Melville
B-71	Davidson, Mr Thornton	Cave List
	Davidson, Mrs Thornton (Orlan Hays)
B-72 (?)	May, Mr Richard (cross channel passenger) May, Mr Stanley (cross channel passenger)	Speculation	Fr. Francis Browne never mentions the cabin allocations of his travelling companions. He does though mention that there were suites on B deck and gives only two examples, "Loius XVI and Modern Dutch". He says that the styles are revealed on the other side of the door (i.e. behind the door). He would only know such things if he had actually visited B deck suites. Also, on his deck and cabin allocation plan (which is reproduced in the book which contains his photos) there is a little pen mark outside of cabins B-72 and B-74. Perhaps he made a little mark to remind him that his travelling companions were in those cabins.
B-73	Perreault, Miss Anne [maid to Mrs Hays]	Cave List
B-74 (?)	Odell, Master Jack Dudley	Speculation	See B-72

	(cross channel passenger) Odell, Miss Kate (cross channel passenger) Odell, Mrs Lily (cross channel passenger)			The Cave List has the Spencer\'s in B-76 see below.
B-76 (?)
B-76 or 78 (?)	Spencer, Mr William Augustus Spencer, Mrs William Augustus (Marie Eugenie)	Cave List / Senate inquiry		According to the Cave List, Mr and Mrs Spencer were assigned to cabin B-76. Their maid was assigned to B-80, so perhaps for convenience they moved to B-78 (or perhaps it was a misprint on the Mr Etches testified that their cabin was B-78.
B-77	Roths, the Countess of Cherry, Miss Gladys	Personal account in New York Herald (22 April 1912).		According to the Cave List, the countess Miss Cherry and Miss Maioni were assigned to C-37 (q.v.) for some reason she and Miss Cherry were moved to B-77.
B-79 (?)	Maioni, Miss Roberta [maid to the Countess of Roths]	Speculation		Miss Roberta\'s employer moved to B-77 (q.v.). Next to B-77 the maid\'s cabin was B-79. If Miss Roberta moved with her employer then she would have occupied B-79, if not, Miss Roberta would have stayed in C-37.
B-80	Lurette, Miss Elise [maid to Mrs Spencer]	Cave List		Berth 1
B-84	Guggenheim, Mr Benjamin  Giglio, Mr Victor [valet to Mr Guggenheim]	Cave List / Etches testimony at the Senate inquiry.		It has been suggested (Eaton & Haas 1994) that Guggenheim occupied cabin B-82-84 while his valet was in B-86). Etches said that Guggenheim occupied cabin B-84 with his valet . "the next cabins were empty until you come to B-84 occupied by Mr Guggenheim and his valet and Mr Carter\'s valet occupied 86, the inside cabin." Later when describing the lifebelts and talking about Guggenheim\'s cabin he said there were three lifebelts in a room occupied by two.
B-86	Cairns, Mr Alexander [manservant to Mr Carter]	Senate inquiry		See above
B-94	Harrison, Mr William [secretary to Mr Ismay]	Senate inquiry		Etches was the steward in this section, he confirms that Mr Harrison was in B-94.
B-95 or 97 (?)	Loring, Mr Joseph Holland	Speculation		In Lynch (1992) Loring and Rheims are mentioned in the Smoking Room talking to a steward and Loring says that his stateroom is right under the Smoking Room. B-97 and 95 are the only unoccupied cabins right under the Smoking Room. Mr Loring did not survive and any information known about him comes from Mr Rheims. In addition to the smoke room incident any information on the whereabouts of Mr Loring's cabin comes from Mr Rheims' accounts or letters. But Mr Rheims never mentions either his or Mr Loring's actual cabin number.

B-96-98	Carter, Mr William Ernest Carter, Mrs William Ernest (Lucile Polk) Carter, Miss Lucile Polk Carter, Master William Thornton II Lesurer, Mr Gustave [manservant to Mr Cardeza] Ward, Miss Anna [maid to Mrs Cardeza] Fry, Mr Richard [valet to Mr Ismay]	Cave List	The Cave List suggests the parents were in B-96
B-101 (?)		Cave List / Speculation	Anna Ward may have occupied B-101, if so then she would have berthed with Gustave Lesneur, a possibility but it is perhaps more likely that she would have occupied the same cabin as Mrs Cardeza (q.v.).
B-102 (?)		Unknown	Not mentioned in Cave List, source unknown
C Deck			Has 137 numbered cabins, 2 of which are sitting rooms. Therefore 135 cabins are able to accommodate 315 passengers.
C-2	Pears, Mr Thomas Pears, Mrs Thomas (Edith Wearne)	Cave List
C-6	Beattie, Mr Thomson McCaffry, Mr Thomas Francis	Cave List	Peuchen thought Beattie and McCaffry were in A-8 (q.v.) and in cabins with numbers to that affect (Source: Senate inquiry). It is possible that they were moved after the Cave List was printed.
C-7	Bonnell, Miss Caroline Wick, Miss Mary Natalie	Cave List / Miss Bonnell's account (The Christian Science Monitor 19 April 1912, p. 5)	Mr and Mrs Wick and their daughter were not on the Cave List. They did though book in plenty of time to be included on the Cave List so the reason for their exclusion is unknown. We know that Miss Wick was in the same cabin as Miss Bonnell, because of an interview where Miss Bonnell says they were in the same cabin.
C-22-26	Allison, Mr Hudson Joshua	Cave List	The Cave List only mentions C-22 and C-26. After the disaster when Miss Cleaver and

	Creighton Allison, Mrs Hudson J.C. (Bessie Waldo Daniels) Daniels, Miss Sarah [maid to Mrs Allison] Allison, Miss Helen Lorraine Allison, Master Hudson Trevor Cleaver, Miss Alice [nurse to Master Allison]		Miss Daniels stayed with the family, it became known that they may have been in 3 cabins. Since nearby C-24 was vacant, they might have added that on to their cabins. It is not certain that the Allisons took C-24 as well. It's quite possible that they only occupied C-22 and C-26. Mr and Mrs Allison with Lorriane would have probably have occupied C-26 with the others in C-22. In C-24 is included it is likely that Miss Cleaver and Trevor were placed in C-24 and that the confusion that Miss Cleaver caused by leaving with Trevor was probably because they were in a separate cabin.
C-23	Fortune, Mr Charles Alexander	Cave List
C-25	Fortune, Miss Alice Elizabeth Fortune, Miss Ethel Flora Fortune, Miss Mabel	Cave List
C-27	Fortune, Mr Mark Fortune, Mrs Mark (Mary McDougald)	Cave List
C-28 (?)	Schabert, Mrs Paul (Emma Mock)	Personal account / unknown	Not mentioned in Cave List. The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of 19 April 1912 quotes Mrs. Schabert as saying she was in 'stateroom 28 on the port side.' She also wrote after the sinking: 'Mrs Straus, who had a stateroom near me and with whom I often talked, refused to leave her husband.' Since Mrs Straus had her cabin on C-deck, we can deduce that Mrs Schabert most likely had her cabin on this deck as well.
C-30	Molson, Mr Harry Markland	Cave List
C-32	White, Mrs John Stuart (Ella Holmes)	Cave List
	Young, Miss Marie Grice Cherry, Miss Gladys Maioni, Miss Roberta [maid to the Countess of Roths] Roths,	Cave List	See also B-77.

	Countess of (Lucy Noël Martha Dyer-Edwards)
C-39	Hipkins, Mr William Edward	Cave List
C-42	Graham, Mr George Edward	Cave List
C-45	Endres, Miss Caroline Louise [nurse to Mrs Astor]	Cave List
C-46	Cavendish, Mr Tyrell William Cavendish, Mrs Tyrell William (Julia Florence Siegel) Barber, Miss Ellen "Nellie" [maid to Mrs Cavendish ]	Cave List	Mrs Cavendish's son, in later life recalled that his mother claimed she had terrible sea sickness. He also got the impression that she was on a higher deck (possibly B-deck). If the Cavendishes were in C-46 (ie. it was not a misprint), it is possible that they later moved to a different cabin.
C-47	Maréchal, Mr Pierre	Cave List
C-49	Isham, Miss Ann Elizabeth	Cave List
C-50	Potter, Mrs Thomas, Jr. (Lily Alexenia Wilson)	Cave List
C-51	Gracie, Colonel Archibald IV	Cave List
C-52	Woolner, Mr Hugh	Cave List
C-53	Tucker, Mr Gilbert Milligan, Jr.	Cave List
C-54	Earnshaw, Mrs Boulton (Olive Potter) Hays, Miss Margaret Bechstein	Cave List	On the Cave List, Miss Earnshaw's cabin is given as C-53. This is probably a mistake.
C-55-57	Straus, Mr Isidor Straus, Mrs Isidor (Ida Blun)	Cave List
C-62-64 (?)	Astor, Colonel John Jacob Astor, Mrs John	Unknown	The Astors do not appear on the Cave List. Although they booked in time for their names to appear on the list the reason for their

	Jacob (Madeleine Talmadge Force)		exclusion is not known, it is possible that they asked not to be included on the cabin lists. The documentary source for placing them in C-64-64 is not known.
C-65	Peñasco y Castellana, Mr Victor de Satode Peñasco y Castellana, Mrs Victor de Satode	Cave List
C-68	Thayer, Mr John Borland Thayer, Mrs John Borland (Marian Longstreth Morris)	Mrs Thayer's Account (? specific source)	Although the names of the Thayers do appear on the Cave List, there is no indication about which cabins they occupied. The reason we know the Thayer cabins, is from the Thayers themselves.
C-70	Thayer, Mr John Borland, jr.
C-78	Minahan, Dr William Edward Minahan, Mrs William Edward (Lillian E. Thorpe) Minahan, Miss Daisy E.	Cave List
C-80	Widener, Mr George Dunton Widener, Mrs George Dunton (Eleanor Elkins)	Cave List
C-82	Widener, Mr Harry Elkins
C-83	Harris, Mr Henry Birkhardt Harris, Mrs Henry Birkhardt (Irene Wallach)	Cave List
C-85	Cummings, Mr John Bradley Cummings, Mrs John Bradley (Florence Briggs Thayer)	Cunningham's testimony at the Senate inquiry	"What deck were you assigned to, if any?" "C deck aft, on the starboard side... In number 85 were Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Cummings"
C-86	Douglas, Mr Walter Donald Douglas, Mrs Walter Donald (Mahala Dutton)	Cave List	With regard to Miss LeRoy's cabin see also C-138.

	LeRoy, Miss Bertha ("Berthe _") [maid to Mrs Douglas]
C-87 (?)	Stead, Mr William Thomas	Cunningham\'s testimony at the Senate inquiry	Stead\'s name does appear on the Cave List but it does not give the cabin number. Steward Cunningham testified that he was in C-89. When originally booking his passage, he paid a rather low £26 11s for his ticket, a price far below the one he would have required to pay for C-87 and especially C-89. Although it is not certain, he possibly occupied a different C-Deck cabin before requesting to be moved into a larger cabin. On the Cave List, Mr and Mrs Clark\'s cabin is C-89 but Steward Cunningham testified that they were in C-87. The Clarks paid a high price for their cabin and were probably given a cabin with private bathroom access. They most probably would have occupied C-89.
C-89	Clark, Mr Walter Miller Clark, Mrs Walter Miller (Virginia McDowell)	Cave List / Cunningham\'s testimony at the Senate inquiry
C-90	de Villiers, Madame Berthe (Berthe Antonine Mayne)	Cave List
C-91	Graham, Mrs William Thompson (Edith Junkins) Graham, Miss Margaret Edith	Cave List / Cunningham\'s testimony at the Senate inquiry	On the Cave List Miss Graham is placed in C-125. But according to the bedroom steward, Cunningham, as he testified at the Senate inquiry, Miss Graham was in C-91 with her mother. Also, Miss Shutes in her story, described how she lay in her cabin. After the collision Miss Shutes went to the cabin of her friend, where her friend\'s daughter was eating a chicken sandwich which suggests that both Mrs and Miss Graham were in the same cabin.
C-92	Goldenberg, Mr Samuel L. Goldenberg, Mrs	Cave List
C-93	Hoyt, Mr Frederick Maxfield Hoyt, Mrs Frederick Maxfield (Jane Anne Forby)	Cave List
C-95 (?)	Rothschild, Mr Martin Rothschild, Mrs Martin (Elizabeth L. Barrett)	Deduced from Senate inquiry	The Rothschilds booked late and do not appear on the Cave List. As according to dining room steward, Ray\'s testimony, we know that the Rothschilds were on C deck. Ray, when going up on deck stopped by the purser\'s office "...saw the two pursers in the purser's office and the clerks busy at the safe taking things out and putting them in bags, and just then Mr Rothschild left his stateroom and I waited for him". The only way that Ray would have seen the pursers is if he was standing in the door or just outside the door of the purser's office. He saw Mr Rothschild leave his stateroom, this means that he actually saw Mr Rothschild get out of the door, not just walking down the corridor. The only probable and "unoccupied" cabin Mr Ray would have seen from where he stood would be C-95.

C-97	Bird, Miss Ellen [maid to Mrs Straus] Farthing, Mr John [manservant to Mr Straus]	Cave List		On the Cave List, next to the Straus\' cabin allocations, is the cabin of their servants. Only one cabin is given, C-97. There is no evidence that Fathing and Bird were in separate cabins.
C-99	Bissetti, Miss Amelia [maid to Mrs White]	Cave List	Berth 1
	Brown, Mrs John Murray (Caroline Lane Lamson)	Cave List	Berth 1
C-101	Appleton, Mrs Edward Dale (Charlotte Lamson)	Cave List	Berth 2

C-106	Saalfeld, Mr Adolphe	Cave List
C-108	Maguire, Mr John Edward	Cave List
C-109	Oliva y Ocana, Doña Fermina [maid to Mrs Penasco]	Cave List	Berth 1

C-111	Foreman, Mr Benjamin Laventall	Cave List
C-114 (?)	Fleming, Miss Margaret [maid to Mrs Thayer]	Speculation
C-112 (?)	Bidois, Miss Rosalie [maid to Mrs Astor]	Speculation
C-116	Robbins, Mr Victor [manservant to Colonel Astor] Stengel, Mr Charles Emil Henry Stengel, Mrs Charles Emil Henry (Annie May Morris)	Senate inquiry testimony

C-120	Ringhini, Mr Sante [manservant to Mrs White ]	Cave List	Berth 1
C-122 (?)	Robbins, Mr Victor [manservant to Colonel Astor]	Speculation	Or Possibly C-112 with Bidois (q.v.)
C-121 or 123 (?)	Futrelle, Mr Jacques Heath Futrelle, Mrs Jacques (Lily May Peel)	Deduced from Mrs Futrelle's account.	In her account Mrs Futrelle writes that she crossed the corridor to go to the Harris cabin.
C-124	Klaber, Mr Herman	Cave List
C-125	Shutes, Miss Elizabeth W. [governess to Miss Graham]	Cave List
C-126	Taylor, Mr Elmer Zebley	Cave List
C-128	Taylor, Mrs Elmer Zebley (Juliet Cummins Wright)	Cave List
C-128	Williams, Mr Fletcher Lambert	Cave List

C-132	Craig, Mr. Norman C. [Did not board]	Cave List	Berth 1
C-138 or 140 (?)	LeRoy, Miss Bertha ("Berthe _") [maid to Mrs Douglas] Serreplan, Miss Auguste [maid to Mrs Carter]	Deduced from Mrs Douglas' affidavit (Senate inquiry)	Mrs Douglas (of C-86) implies that her maid occupied a cabin with Mrs Carter's maid. (Senate inquiry Testimony) if this is the case it is possible that they shared C-140. They could not have shared C-136, since Etches was in that cabin taking out lifebelts and throwing them in the corridor. If C-136 was occupied, Etches would not have been able to do so. Please do not exclude the possibility of C140. Sereplan's employers were on a deck above, so perhaps Sereplan and LeRoy were in C140, closer to the stairs.

E-23 (?)	A first class unaccompanied lady.	Speculation	It is known that a single lady occupied this cabin. Mr McGough said he knocked on the cabin door (across the hall to him) of a lady. Possibilities include Mrs Flegenheimer, Mrs Candee, Miss Willard or Mrs Lindström.

	Gee, Mr Arthur H.	Cave List	It is known, from Mr Gee's letters that he was moved to another cabin, on E deck. He moved because he wanted a porthole in his cabin, therefore he must have moved to an outside cabin.

E-66	Case, Mr Howard Brown	Faulkner's account.	Mr Case's name does appear on the Cave List, however his cabin allocation does not. Bedroom steward Faulkner in his memoirs records Mr Case changing from cabin E-66 to a cabin in Faulkner's section on C deck. Mr Case only spent one night in this (E-66) cabin, on 11th April 1912, Mr Case was transferred to his new cabin.
E-67	Taussig, Mr Emil Taussig, Mrs Emil (Tillie Mandelbaum)	Cave List
E-68	Taussig, Miss Ruth	Cave List	Berth 1

All together the 6 decks have a total of 400 cabins, 4 of which are sitting rooms. Therefore 396 cabins are able to accommodate a total of 856 people. The 324 passengers to New York would only have provided 38% of the total amount possible.

Second Class

D Deck
D-56	Beesley, Mr Lawrence	Personal account
E Deck
E-77 (?)	Mack, Mrs Mary	Ticket found on her body.	Her cabin is usually given as E-77 but this was actually a first class cabin. Although E-43 onward were originally second class cabins, first class cabins were later extended all the way to E-88 probably due to the anticipated demand which did not in fact materialize. It is possible that, once the low take-up of first class cabins was realized, E-69 onward were returned to second class, in which case Mrs Mack could have occupied E-77 although this is speculation. It is equally possible that E-77 is simply a transcription error.

E Deck

11	Theobald, Mr  Thomas Leonard	Boarding Card	In section B, forward on E deck. The boarding card was found when his body was recovered
121	Moor, Mrs Beila  Moor, Master  Meier	Boarding Card	In section M
126	Sage, Master  William Henry  (and possibly  others from the  Sage family)	Ticket found with body.	On the ticket recovered with the body of Will Sage a list number (20) is given and the berth number 126 (in section M) is also given. It is likely that some but not all of the family members were in this cabin.

161	Gilnagh, Miss Katherine "Katie" Mullen, Miss Katherine "Katie" ("_Mullins") Murphy, Miss Margaret Jane ("Mary") Miss Katherine "Kate"	Boarding Card	In section Q

57 (?)	Krekorian, Mr Neshan	Unknown	In section E
63 (?)	Abelseth, Mr Olaus Jørgensen Humblen, Mr Adolf Mathias Nicolai Olsen Moen, Mr Sigurd Hansen	Unknown	In section G
73 (?)	Søholt, Mr Peter Andreas Lauritz Andersen	Unknown	In section G
G Deck
6 (?)	Sandström, Mrs Hjalmar Sandström, Miss Beatrice Irene Sandström, Miss Marguerite Rut Ström, Mrs Wilhelm (Elna Matilda Persson) Ström, Miss Telma (Selma) Matilda	Unknown  Immigration Ticket	There is no cabin 6 in section G on F deck. Most likely the five of them shared cabin 6 on G deck, in the stern of the Titanic . Although the room was a 4 berth room, one of them was only a baby and could have shared a bed with it's mother or one of the children.
10 (?)	Pickard (Trembisky), Mr Berk	Deduced from Senate inquiry	Pickard testified that he was in cabin 10 in the stern, so most likely he was in cabin 10, where male and female separation was less restricted. His cabin was able to accommodate 4 people.

Notes

Berth numbers were given for some passengers. Odd for lower berths and even for upper berths.
