

Captain's Suicide on the Bridge

The Witney Gazette

Saturday 20 April 1912

The latest news of the terrible disaster is published this (Friday) morning by The Daily Telegraph

We, the undersigned surviving passengers of the Titanic,

Mrs Andrews, an elderly lady interviewed by the press representatives, said the crash occurred at 11.35 pm on Sunday night. The women and children got off in the lifeboats at 12.45 am. The Titanic sank at 2.00 am, and the Carpathia picked up the boats at 8.30 am. Many women were insane. We did not know, she continued, until daybreak, whether we would be rescued. We were in the open boat for eight hours, and the suffering of all was indescribable.
