

ELIZABETH RESIDENTS WERE ON THE TITANIC

Newark Evening News

Wednesday 17 April 1912

ELIZABETH, April 17

Former Elizabeth residents on the boat were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Carter and their children, Lucille, aged thirteen, and William, aged ten, of Philadelphia. They were accompanied by a maid. Mr. Carter, who is thirty-seven years old, is a nephew of Joseph Carter, of 43 South Broad street, this city. Mrs. Carter's maiden name is Polk, and she is said to be a descendent of President James K. Polk. Press dispatches show that the Carters were saved.
