

In Memoriam SS Titanic, 1912

1912

Memorial document published in Great Britain in April 1912

This splendid document was published just days after the sinking of the Titanic. Its title is 'Souvenir in affectionate remembrance of the Captain, Mates, Crew and Passengers who lost their lives by the foundering of the world's biggest liner S. S. TITANIC whilst crossing the Atlantic from Southampton to New York on the 15th, April 1912'. Three stanzas of 'Nearer my god to thee' were printed below, along with the liner's length, breadth and tonnage. Green and purple flowers were hand drawn all around the document. The drawing in the center is from a souvenir picture.
