Happiness or Gloom Seizes Ohio Relatives of Titanic Passengers

Memorial Services to be Held for Youngstown Business Man

Gladness mingled with grief yesterday when word came that two persons mourned by relatives in Cleveland as lost with the Titanic were safe. Roland Stanley, brother of Albert J. Stanley, 2031 E. 105th st, was not on board, according to a dispatch to the Collver Steamship agency. Thus was the measure of despair in the home lightened, but it was not removed, for there were no tidings of Earnes...
