

LAWRENCE VAIL WEDS WRITER IN NICE, FRANCE

New York Times

Sunday 3 April 1932

Marries Miss Kay Boyle at City Hall---His Former Wife Acts as Matron of Honor

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES

NICE, France, April 2---Lawrence Vail of New York and Kay Boyle of Cincinnati, American authors, were married at City Hall here today. Mr. Vail gave his age as 41 and his bride as 29.

For both it was the second marriage. Miss Peggy Guggenheim, Mr. Vail's first wife acted as matron of honor. Frank Scully, literary secretary of the late Frank Harris, was best man.

The wedding trip will be spent at Cagnes-sur-Mer.

Courtesy of Mark Baber

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2011 and third parties (ref: #3904)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/lawrence-vail-weds-writer-nice-france.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

