Dear Mr. Corkhill,

Mr. Allen had a personal interview with Mrs. Smith, the widow of Captain Smith, yesterday afternoon, who is anxious that you should be good enough to consider her claim that the allowance, in respect of the four children of Mr. Wilde the First Officer, should be reconsidered. I have no doubt the matter has been properly dealt with by your Committee, but shall be very glad if you will kindly send her a short report of what your Committee has done for them. Mrs. Smith's address is: The Nook, Runcoln, Cheshire.

Yours faithfully

P. L. Swain, Hon. Secretary, Examining Committee,.

P. F. Corkhill, Esq. Town Hall, Liverpool.
