

MISS MARIE YOUNG DIES

New York Times

Wednesday 29 July 1959

Survivor of Titanic Was 83---Had Been Piano Teacher

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., July 28 (AP)---Miss Marie C. Young, one of the survivors of the Titanic ship disaster, died yesterday at a rest home near here. Her age was 83.

Miss Young had been a piano teacher and numbered among her pupils the children of President Theodore Roosevelt. She was a native of Washington.

As a traveling companion to Mrs. J. Stuart White of New York, Miss Young was aboard the White Star liner Titanic in 1912 when it sank on its maiden voyage after striking an iceberg off Newfoundland. There were 1,517 lives lost and 690 survivors. Miss Young had lived at the rest home for the last six years.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.

Courtesy of Mark Baber

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #3068)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/miss-marie-young-dies.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

