

Mrs. Gage Remains in Asylum

New York Times

Wednesday 13 March 1912

WASHINGTON, March 12---Mrs. Mary E. Gage, who was committed to the Government Hospital for the Insane yesterday for threatening Charles J. Bell, a Washington banker, still is a patient in that institution. Habeas corpus proceedings for her release were not instituted to-day, and her brother, who came here after his sister's arrest, returned to his home in Newark.

---

Courtesy of Mark Baber

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #3335)
URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/mrs-gage-remains-asylum.html>

---

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

