

Mrs. J. Murray Brown

Arlington Advocate

Saturday 27 April 1912

Mrs. J. Murray Brown, formerly of Belmont, who, with her two sisters escaped from the wrecked Titanic, is well known to some of our readers. Her sons used to be quite prominent in Arlington society. Mrs. Brown has furnished some of the most clear and consecutive accounts which the newspapers have published in relation to this unprecedented sea disaster. Her husband was of the well known book publishing firm of Little, Brown & Co., of Boston. Of late years she has had her home at the Tudor, Boston, in the winter, but has a country home at Acton. Her maiden name was Caroline L. Lamson.

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2011 and third parties (ref: #1812)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/mrs-j-murray-brown-3.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

