

NOTHING HEARD OF FREDERICK SUTTON

Camden Daily Courier

Thursday 18 April 1912

Relatives and friends of Frederick Sutton, of Haddonfield, who was on board the Titanic when she sank on Sunday night after colliding with a huge iceberg, have given up all hope of his survival. Mr. Sutton was president of the Collingswood National Bank and was widely known over Camden County and in Philadelphia, where he was engaged in business.

Courtesy of Mark Baber

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #3674)
URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/nothing-heard-frederick-sutton.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

