

Postpone Silver Wedding Celebration

New York Times

Sunday 28 April 1912

Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Greenfield of 1,239 Madison Avenue have postponed the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary, which was to have taken place at Sherry's on Sunday, May 5, on account of mourning due to the Titanic disaster and the many funerals that are soon to take place. Mrs. Greenfield and her son were among the survivors of the ill-fated liner.
