

Presumed Death in the Titanic

The Times

Tuesday 11 June 1912

T. Franklin presumed deceased

[Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Court hearing]

This was a motion to swear the death of Thomas Parnham Franklin, of Sunningdale, Ceylon Road, Westcliff-on-Sea, Essex, who is believed to have lost his life in the steamship Titanic which sailed from Southampton on April 10, 1912, and sank in the Atlantic on a voyage to New York on April 15.

(The Times, June 11, 1912, p.3)

Courtesy of Senan Molony

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #2524)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/presumed-death-titanic.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

