

Silent Toast to Major Butt.

New York Times

Wednesday 24 April 1912

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 23.---A silent toast to Major Archibald Butt was drunk last night by the Second Company Governor's Foot Guard, one of the historic military organizations of the State, at its annual observance of the anniversary of the departure of the company for Cambridge in 1775.

Courtesy of Jason D. Tiller

© Encyclopedia Titanica (www.encyclopedia-titanica.org) 1996-2011 and third parties (ref: #5051)
URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/silent-toast-major-butt.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.