

The Mauretania's Second Voyage

The Scotsman

Saturday 14 December 1907

The Mauretania sails from Liverpool on her second voyage this evening, being due to leave the Liverpool landing stage at seven o'clock. All her saloon accommodation, including the Regal Suites, is fully booked. Amongst the passengers are Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Mr. Whitelaw Reid (American Ambassador), Mrs. Reid, Mr. Ogden Reid and Miss Reid; Lady Duff Gordon; the Hon. C. Sefton (Canadian Minister of the Interior); Senator Melvin Jones; Sir Edgar Vincent, K.C.M.G.; the Hon. Eustace Fiennes, M.P.; Mr. David Davies, M.P., and Mr. Edward Bristol, M.P.

Courtesy of Randy Bryan Bigham

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2011 and third parties (ref: #4718)
URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/the-mauretania's-second-voyage.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

