

Titanic Disaster, Westcountry Passengers and Crew

Western Morning News

Wednesday 17 April 1912

Mr Turpin, of Plymouth, who was employed at Salt Lake City, came home with his wife last August principally for the purpose of seeing Mrs Turpin's father Mr Wonnacott, of Endsleigh Place, Plymouth. Mr Turpin's mother lives in Beaumont Road, Plymouth. They intended to return to America in the New York, but owing to the strike they were transferred to the Titanic.

Courtesy of Steve Coombes

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2011 and third parties (ref: #2211)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/titanic-disaster-westcountry-passengers-and-crew-8.html>

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

