

Titanic survivor dead

The Times

Friday 17 February 1956

One of the few surviving members of the crew of the liner Titanic, Mr James Crimmins, died suddenly at a Southampton Salvation Army hostel yesterday, at the age of 65.

(The Times of London, February 17, 1956, p. 3)

* Crimmins, of 7 King Street, Southampton, may have escaped in Lifeboat 13, but this is conjectural merely.

---

Courtesy of Senan Molony

Copyright Encyclopedia Titanica - www.encyclopedia-titanica.org 1996-2012 and third parties (ref: #3258)

URL : <http://www.encyclopedia-titanica.org/titanic-survivor-dead.html>

---

PDF edition provided for personal reference only.

