

TITANIC SURVIVOR IS HOME

Jersey Journal

Monday 22 April 1912

Practically recovered from exposure and bruises which he received when the Titanic sunk [sic], Thomas McCormack, 19 years old, of 36 West Twentieth Street, returned to his home Saturday. Since the arrival of the Carpathia he had been at St. Vincent's Hospital, Eleventh Street and Seventh Avenue, New York. His brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Evers, respectively, visited him Saturday. The young man expressed a desire to return to his home and permission was granted to him to leave by the hospital authorities, especially as McCormack was in good condition physically.

When he reached his home in Bayonne he was warmly greeted by his relatives and many friends, who showered the young man with congratulations on his escape.
